FABULOUS FRIDAY
MAY 31, 2002
HIGH NOON
HIGH BALLS – 11:30
SEVENTH REGIMENT MESS
643 PARK AVE. – 67TH STREET

Joy-Joy. John Henry and his Henchmen hunkered up heavy hundreds and happy are we.

Now let the new regime reign.

Great start. Shea Hillebrand – Oliver – Derek – Damon with Manny, Nomar, Trot and Lou Merloni on the rise. Who ever thought we would root for Rickey? Tony Clark looks like Jack Clark or Jose Conseco (take your pick). But that too will come about and you know that Pedro will prevail.

Grady the Great has us on top of the heap. Hopefully, Dick Bresciani – our hero – will have him here with his entire entourage to enthrall us. Maybe John Henry himself might like to meet with this irreverent group. Mr. Harrington never did. Us or anyone evidently.

The only Sox manager we have not had in thirty-seven years – Mr. Kerrigan forgiven – is Kevin Kennedy and according to the word in some select saloons - that was not a loss.

Come and BLOHARD bond. Cheer on our team of Destiny. You can feel it in your hearts.

THIS IS OUR YEAR.
