

BLOHARDS

James B. Powers, Owner/President

BELIEVERS

Tempestuous Tuesday
Sept 15, 1998
High Noon

The Tower Room
The Equitable Tower
787 Seventh Ave & 51st - 50th Floor

That evening we will watch The Beloveds Bash The Bastards.

Dick Bresciani, our hero, has promised a most distinguished guest, to go along with his entourage. We hopefully will have a delightful mystery guest.

The lads had a great first half. Think the 11 runs in one inning in the Bronx was the highlight. Our pal Wendall almost wore out his arm waving them home. May the second half prove fruitful. Remember 1978 when we led by 14. Drat Dent.

Bring your check books. We could have a PAD THE POT FOR MO collection. We will make important decisions for the future. No "NUKE THE DUKE" signs unless they are done with class.

Our new digs at The Equitable Tower are breathtaking. Come and enjoy the company and the views. Where else can one find such dedicated sufferers in one place. Yes, there are a few saloons, but --

Will be away until Aug. 25th so wanted to get this to you. Will follow our victorious drive through International Herald Tribune while helping the French celebrate their soccer success - not that I need an excuse for a little wine. VIVE LA VIN ROUGE & LA SOX ROUGE!

Prepaid reservations are a must so please send me your checks. Hope to have a full house of them when I return

Call Jim Powers
Office: 203-378-6666 • Home: 203-226-5522
Send Checks to:
51 Glenwood Road, Weston, CT 06883

Members Only
Plus their Guests
$60 -- OPENBAR-- 12:00 to 12:30

Be A Member - Dues are due -- Send $15 to Dick Strobridge - Blohards -- 317 Madison Avenue, Suite 920 New York, NY 10017.

ZIP the U.P. too.

Jim Powers
Have faith!