Flexible Friday

May 6, 2016, 12:00 Noon EDT –

High Balls and Infield Practice: 11:30 a.m.

Yale Club – 50 Vanderbilt Avenue (between 44th and 45th)

Beloved Bosox @ Bronx Bastids – 7:05 p.m.

“Baseball really is a glorified game of throw and catch. And if you don’t have guys who can throw really well, you can’t compete for long.”

—Tucker Elliot

“You’ve got to ac-cen-tuate the positive” said the man from Savannah, so here goes: David Friggin’ Price every fifth day....Mookie Betts!!!....Xander Bogaerts, .320....the last ride of Big Papi...Craig Kimbrel...Carson Smith....Jackie Bradley, Jr....Blake Swihart....the ageless Koji Uehara. Ladies and Gentlemen – your 2016 Boston Red Sox.

Q: But what about the third baseman and the first baseman? No mention of them.

A: I know nothing about first base and third base, okay? (Special thanks to D. Trump of Manhattan for his help with that answer.)

Needless to say, there will be much to discuss at the luncheon. There will be John Quinn with trivia, Ray Duffy with the sidesplitting slideshow, Club Historian David Margolick to remind us of or reacquaint us with our rich heritage and, schedules permitting, singer and funnyman John Pizzarelli and newly-minted PawSox impresario Charles Steinberg. Gov. Chris Wertz has promised to make a rare public appearance to discuss his position on term limits (spoiler alert – he’s not in favor). Note: Reserve ASAP – we’re in the “small” room, so space is limited.

Annual dues can be paid at BLOHARDS.com. We have held the line at $20.00 cheap. Lifetime Membership will set you back $150, which breaks even in a mere 7.5 years for those scoring at home.

Luncheon reservations necessary. It helps when ordering the string beans.
