James B. Powers,
Owner/President

Henry Berry,
Sr. VP/Historian

Tom Maloof,
Secretary/Treasurer

FRISKY FRIDAY

June 9, 1989
High Noon
McGraw Hill Dining Room
49th & 6th - 50th floor

So as not to worry.

The "Summer of '49" was - and again is - good viewing. The "Spring of '89" has not exactly been everything to write about. Maybe the "Summer of '89" will produce a true .500 ballteam, at least the Sox.

Anyway, Henry has reached into his bag of tricks to come up with his finest. You will be absolutely amazed at his astute but audacious amblings as he articulates admirably about his all time Auburn Artists, the pride of the Upper Blackstone Valley.

Dick Bresciani and Ken Coleman and their ever faithful entourage will endeavor to entertain. And as usual, with A Plomb. Do not know which Plomb. Both Artie and Andy have a lot of Pizzazz. The Pizzazz Boys played for Brewster in the Cape League. Unfortunately, Rich Gedman will not be with us. Has a hangnail.

Dues are dueable. Send $10 to Tom Maloof, TM Marketing at 105 Main Street, Hackensack, NJ 07601. Lifetime membership - $100. He has taken expensive extra space for the BLOHARD computer system. Maybe we should get IBM to back this. Attention-JFA.

Cost

Members	$22.00
Non-Members	$25.00

Reservations necessary - we do have a limit. Call Marcelous Mary Fasano at (212)715-2112.

As I write, we are in there. May clean living continue to pay off. And may the good Lord be with our pitchers.
