LUCKY FRIDAY

Henry Berry
Sr. VP/Historian

September 13, 1991
McGraw Hill Dining Room
49th & 6th - 50th floor

Tom Maloof
Secretary/Treasurer

On September 13, 1977, we had Don Zimmer. Think he told me he drove a school bus in Moline off season. Also had a guy posing as Mike Burke speak, and a young Mike Lupica came and wrote us up.

Time marches on.

We are back in the fray. This season has certainly had ups and downs. Oh -- those games we should have won. Oh -- those manager decisions.

Anyway, The Bresh -- our own Dick Bresciani -- has a real surprise in store for you -- and me.

Historian Henry Berry will amaze you with an awesome avalanche of adventurous athletes.

Tom Maloof will tell his Terrible Tales of Treasurers Travails.

Please send dues now to avoid the rush at the door.

Mr. Tom Maloof

Life time dues remain at $100, a bargain in these inflationary times. We have a friend at Chase to help out.

	Cost
Members		$25.00
Non-Members		$30.00

Reservations a must - call Heavenly Heather Shea at 212-715-2112.

We will overcome, even though it is an odd year.

Prayer helps. Also pitching and hitting.

Great HR by Boggs -- may there be more.

Is Joe Hesketh for real? Roger who? Phil Plantier will make everyone forget Sam Horn. The Jury is still out on Steve Lyons but Peter Gammons has already said guilty. We do miss Jeff Gray.

Steve Seidman came now behind.
