

BLOHARDS

James B. Powers, Owner/President

Faithful

This has been an exciting year. Ted at the All-Star was enough to bring tears. I was there in '46 when he planted Rip Sewell's eephus ball. That brought cheers. Mark McGwire sure tested the height of the screen. Made one think of Jack Clark. Little humor there.

'Tis August and the lads are on a winning streak – only 7-1/2 games out. Those bastards in the Bronx gotta start losing. We hope "All Will Be Well With The World". Clean living will out. Let us pray.

NEW LOCATION Frivolous Friday
September 10, 1999
High Noon
Time/Life Building
1271 6th Avenue at 50th Street
2nd Floor Southside Dining Room

That evening our lads will be on the attack. Hopefully Roger will feel the brunt.

Dick Bresciani, our hero, will do his usual fine job in entertaining with an excellent entourage eliciting excitement and eternal effervescence from elixir driven enthusiasts. Wow!
